

Rural Accessory Building Determination Application

Town of Eagle (Waukesha County, Wisconsin)

Town of Eagle
820 E. Main Street
Eagle, WI 53119

Overview: Upon petition the Town of Eagle Plan Commission may allow more than two accessory structures or more than the allowable floor area in the RR, R-1, and P-1 zoning districts provided the building meets the definition of rural accessory building. A rural accessory building is generally defined as an existing building that (1) is set apart from other buildings as being distinct, due to its construction technique, construction materials, age, historical significance; (2) is characteristic of past agricultural practices or rural life, whether presently utilized or nor for such agricultural practice; (3) is associated with a person of historic significance or with important historical events; or (4) represents a notable work of a master builder, engineer, or architect who influenced their age.

Governing regulations: The procedures and standards governing this application process are found in Article 6 of the Town's zoning code.

General instructions: Complete this application and submit one copy to the Town Clerk or to the Town Planner via email (rlto@waukeshacounty.gov). Alternatively, you can submit your application online at <https://townofeagle.zoninghub.com>. An application fee is also required. An invoice number will be provided to you after the initial intake review to pay the required application fee. A Professional Reimbursement Form is required prior to the application being considered complete.

Before you formally submit your application, you may meet with the Town Planner who can answer any questions you may have. The Town Planner can also review your application before it is formally submitted to determine if it is complete and provides enough information to describe the circumstances related to this application. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact the Town Planner at (262) 548-7813 or via email at rlto@waukeshacounty.gov.

Application submittal deadline: The Plan Commission and Town Board meet jointly, generally the first Monday of the month, to review certain types of development applications. This application must be submitted and determined to be complete by the Town Planner, no later than 30 days prior to the date established for the Plan Commission-Town Board meeting. Please contact the Town Planner to verify the deadline for a specific month.

Notes:

1. Describe the building (e.g., residence, garage, dairy barn, milk house), its historical significance if any, and any additions that have been added.
 2. To qualify as a rural structure, the structure must be structurally sound. Indicate if the structure is structurally sound, and if not, what will be done to make it structurally sound or when it will be removed.
 3. If the year of construction is not known, provide an approximate year or a time period (e.g., 1930-1940).
 4. The size of the building is measured from outside wall to outside wall.
5. Pictures. As a supplement, you may provide pictures of the various buildings. If you do so, please label them with the building identification number used on the map and in the chart.
6. Other information. You may provide any other information you feel is relevant to the review of your application.

7. Applicant certification

- I certify that all of the information in this application, along with any attachments, are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
- I understand that I may be charged additional fees (above and beyond the initial application fee) consistent with the Town's chargeback policy. The signed chargeback form is attached.
- I understand that submission of this application authorizes town officials, Plan Commission members, Town Board members, employees, and other designated agents to enter the property to conduct whatever site investigations are necessary to review this application. This does not authorize any such individual to enter any building on the subject property, unless such inspection is specifically related to the review of this application and the property owner gives his or her permission to do so.
- I understand that this application and any written materials relating to this application will become a permanent public record and that by submitting this application I acknowledge that I have no right to confidentiality. Any person has the right to obtain copies of such written materials or view it online.
- I understand that the Town Planner will review this application to determine if it contains all of the required information. If he or she determines that the application is incomplete, it will not be scheduled for review until it is deemed to be complete.
